

Bookworm Central Book Fair 11 – 14 December

The book fair is returning to St. Anthony School! The Bookworm Central Book Fair will be held the week of the Christmas Pageant. This is a terrific opportunity for you and your children to shop for quality books which make great Christmas presents for everyone—including teachers!

The Book Fair will be held in room 126 by the cafeteria. Your child will visit the Book Fair and may bring home a “wish list” of books that he or she would like. You may return the list with a check or cash so that your child can purchase the books, or you may come in and shop for these or other books. For your convenience, credit cards also will be accepted. Teacher “wish lists” will be posted outside the book fair, as well as on our website and Facebook and Instagram pages, if you would like to consider donating a book to your child’s classroom teacher.

Book Fair hours that will be open for parents:

- Tuesday, December 11
 - After school from 3:30-4:45 p.m.
- Wednesday, December 12
 - Family night will be held on Wednesday Night (Christmas Pageant Night)
 - Open from 5:30-6:45 p.m.
- Thursday, December 13

The book fair will also be open Tuesday-Friday during the school day for students.

Virtus cleared volunteers are needed during the day as well as after school. Volunteers for Wednesday evening will also receive up to four reserved seats at the Christmas pageant in the 2nd or 3rd rows. A Signup Genius will be sent to parents within the next week to sign up for time slots. Thank you in advance for supporting the St. Anthony of Padua School Library through the Bookworm Book Fair! Our school will receive free books from the book fair. Any questions, please email Mrs. McNerney at kmcnerney@stanthonschoolva.org.
